

Shape Your Destiny

CONSCIOUSLY CHANGE AND DIRECT YOUR LIFE'S DESIGN

A One-Day Workshop for Women and Men

by Ghata

We each create our own experiences and therefore are able to change our lives. Knowing that you are the creator of your journey, in this life-changing workshop you will get clear about your present values and the conscious or unconscious rules you might hold around them.

In Shape Your Destiny you will discover if these values are still supporting the direction that you would like to take in your life. Most importantly you will gain clarity on the true source of some of your challenges and understand how unconscious values might have kept you limited in some areas of your life. As the day progresses, you become more aware of hidden priorities and inner rules enabling you to change your values in a way that helps you to direct your destiny consciously.

We will finish the day with guided energy work to support you to let go of your old values and makes space for the new vision.
